

João Monteiro

GUITARIST

Born in 1987 in Santa Cruz, Madeira, is a talented guitarist and dedicated educator.

In 2006, he joined the Professional Instrumentalist Course in the Guitar class of Professor Pedro Zamora.

In 2009, he enrolled in the Classical Guitar Music program at the Porto School of Music and Performing Arts (ESMAE) in the class of Professor Artur Caldeira.

He also began his teaching career, giving guitar lessons at the Orfeão de Rio Tinto music school.

He participated in several guitar seminars and master classes with professors such as José Pina, Giovanni Grano, Danijel Cerović, Goran Krivokapić, and Claudio Marcotulli.

In 2022 completed a Master's degree in Music Education at the Institute of Intercultural and Transdisciplinary Studies of Almada (ISEIT - PIAGET Institute).

Recognized for his skill, has won awards in guitar competitions and has participated in international festivals in Austria, Estonia, Hungary, and Romania.

His music captivates audiences in recitals across Europe, showcasing his passion for the guitar and his commitment to the art of music.

CONTACT

+351 961855023

monteiroguitarra@outlook.com